Professional Experience: In the past five years, I have spoken at a variety of International/National Conferences such as Sigma Theta Tau International in Brisbane, Australia, NLN Summit 2002 in Anaheim, California, and 9th Annual Conference: Primary Care for the Underserved in Detroit, Michigan. Topics of presentations have ranged from healthcare literacy research, how to write and get abstracts accepted and collaborative interdisciplinary education projects. In addition to presentations, I have taught undergraduate research courses, undergraduate courses, undergraduate teaching courses, and graduate courses. I have had extensive experience converting these courses to online delivery methods. Manuscripts have resulted from each of the above presentations and other topics.
