Table of Contents

About the Author .................................................. viii
Introduction: Becoming an Author .......................... xiii

Section 1 The Beginning ......................................... 1

1 The Essentials ................................................... 3
   Student Paper vs. Manuscript: Purpose ..................... 4
   Essentials of Writing for Publication ....................... 5
   Publication Standards and Guidelines ..................... 8
   What to Publish? ................................................ 14 Example of Potential Manuscripts ......................... 16
   Getting Started ................................................ 17
   Self-Appraisal for Qualitative Methodology ............. 19
   Self-Appraisal for Quantitative Methodology ........... 21
   Resources ....................................................... 23
   Reference ....................................................... 23

2 Writing Well ...................................................... 25
   Clarity Is Key! .................................................. 26
   Language ....................................................... 26 Organization ................................................... 37
   Grammar and Punctuation .................................. 41
   Final Steps .................................................... 42
   Resources ....................................................... 43

Section 2 Step-by-Step .......................................... 45

3 Introduction and Literature Review ....................... 47
   Rewriting ....................................................... 51
   Quality Improvement and Evidence-Based Projects: ....
   Where to Fit the Local Problem ............................ 55
   Getting to a First Draft ..................................... 56
   What You Don’t Need ........................................ 59
   Theoretical and Evidence-Based Practice Frameworks . 60
   Synthesis ....................................................... 62

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book.
Integrative and Systematic Review Manuscripts ........... 64
Search Strategy ........................................ 64
Resources .............................................. 67
References ............................................. 68

4 Methods and Analysis ......................... 69
Ethical Considerations .......................... 70
Methods .............................................. 71
Analysis ............................................... 77
Resources .............................................. 81
References ............................................. 81

5 Results and Discussion ..................... 83
Results ................................................ 84
Discussion .......................................... 94
Resources .............................................. 98
Reference ............................................. 98

Section 3 Navigating the Publication Process .... 99

6 Publication Primer ............................ 101
Who’s Who in Scholarly Publishing ........... 102 Publishing Metrics ................................ 109
Beware of Predatory Journals .................. 115
Resources .............................................. 117

7 Authorship: Rules, Responsibilities, and Legalities ................................. 119
Authorship ........................................ 120
Resources .............................................. 134

8 Open Access Models ....................... 135
Main Levels of Open Access Journals ........ 136
Article Processing Fees ........................ 137
Hybrid Model ....................................... 138
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Predatory Publishing</td>
<td>139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Questionable Publications</td>
<td>144</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Online Resources</td>
<td>145</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resources</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

9 The Submission Process 147

- Title 148
- Choosing the Right Journal 149
- Querying 151
- Sample Query 153
- Submitting Your Article 154
- Submit! 163
- Reference 166

10 Getting a Decision 167

- Decisions 168
- Common Reasons for Manuscript Rejection 169
- Responding to Reviewers’ Recommendations 171
- Working With Editors 174

Index 181
INDEX

NOTE: Page references with a ‘t’ are tables.

A
abstracts, 158–159, 164
acceptances, 168
active voice, 33
adjectives, 31
adverbs, 31, 33
Altmetrics, 112–113
American Medical Association (AMA) styles, 12 American Psychological Association (APA) styles, 12
analysis
  concept analyses, 15–16
  meta-analysis, 10
  Results section, 89
  statistical, 106
  trust in, 96
Analysis section, 77–78
anonymity, 70
application papers, 16
article-level metrics, 111–113
article processing charges (APCs), 105, 137–138
articles
  presubmission components, 156–163
  publication ahead of print, 179
  querying journals, 151–153
  reviews, 115
  submissions, 147–166
artwork, presubmission components, 160–161 Associate Editors, 103t
author-level metrics, 113–114
authors
  authorship forms, 162, 166
  confidentiality, 125
  conflict of interest (COI), 122–123, 124, 162
copyrights, 126–127
Creative Commons copyrights, 93, 127
disclosure, 123–124
ethics and legalities, 120–134 fair use, 131
ghost authorship, 120
gift, 120–122
guest, 120–122
guidelines, 7–8, 10–12, 150, 154–155t honorary, 120–122
infringement of copyrights, 130 misconduct, 128
National Institutes of Health (NIH), 133
order of, 122
permissions, 128
plagiarism, 129–130
posting rights, 139
privacy, 125
redundant publications, 132–133
self-plagiarism, 130
authorship, determining, 12–14
automatic posting, 139

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book.
Background, 37. See also Literature Review BioMed Central (BMC), 136
blinded peer reviews, 108–109

Cabell’s Blacklist, 141
callouts, 162, 163
categories, 88, 89
change models, 62
chart reviews, 73
citations, 111
self-citations, 114
studies, 63
clarity, 26
clinical trial registry, 162
coauthors, presubmission components, 156
colloquialisms, 29
columns, 92. See also tables Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), 143–144, 145
communication, predatory journals, 141–142 compensation, stating, 73
concept analyses, 15–16
conscience, 30–33
conclusions, 96–97
conclusions in abstracts, 158–159
confidentiality, 70, 89, 125
conflict of interest (COI), 122–123, 124
CONSORT (Consolidated Standards of Reporting Trials), 8
content editors, 102
copy editing, 176
Copy Editors, 104 t, 176
copyrights, 93, 126–127, 131, 138
Creative Commons, 127
infringement of, 130
costs
article processing charges (APCs), 105, 137–138
grants, 138
production, 105
cover letters, 164
examples, 157
presubmission components, 156–157
Creative Commons copyrights, 93, 127 credibility. See also predatory journals of journals, 141
of results, 90
data abstraction tools, 73 databases, dissertations on, 133 data collection, Methods section, 73–74 deadlines, setting, 17
decisions after submitting, 168–180
description, thick, 78, 90 developmental editing, 175 Developmental Editors, 104 t Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ), 145
disclosure
authors, 123–124
forms, 162, 166
discriminate (principle), 53
Discussion section, 94–97
implications, 96
limitations, 95–96
quality improvement (QI), 95
DNP quality improvement projects, 54, 70 editorial staff, 102, 105 Editor-in-Chief, 102, 103t, 152
editors
pressure from, 115
searching for freelance editors, 170
working with, 174–179
Editors, 103t
Eigenfactor, 111
email from predatory journals, 141–142 embedding tables and figures, 93 ethics, 70, 138
authors, 120–134
Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), 143–144, 145
euphemisms, 30
evidence-based projects (EBPs), 55–56, 60–62
examples
of abstracts, 158–159
of callouts, 163
of cover letters, 157
of intensifiers, 32
of manuscripts, 16
of qualifiers, 32
of queries, 153, 177–178
of statements on authorship, 121 of theory description, 60–62 exclusion criteria, 72

first drafts
Introductions, 56–59
Literature Review, 56–59
organizing, 64
focus
of Introductions, 53
of manuscripts, 48, 57, 58
formatting. See also guidelines
figures, 91
legends, 92
Results section, 84–85
styles, 12
tables, 91
forms, presubmission components, 162 freelance editors, searching for, 170 funding grants, 108

g
ghost authorship, 120
GIF (Graphic Interchange Format) files, 161 gift authors, 120–122
gold open access (OA) models, 136
grammar resources, 40
grants, 108, 138
graphs, 93. See also tables green open access (OA) models, 137
guest authors, 120–122 guidelines, 8–14. See also standards author, 150, 154t
CONSORT (Consolidated Standards of Reporting Trials), 11
determining authorship, 12–14
following, 7–8
formatting styles, 12
PRISMA (Preferred Reporting Items for Systematic Reviews and Meta-Analyses), 10–11 sending queries, 152
SQUIRE (Standards for Quality Improvement Reporting Excellence), 10

F
fairness in peer reviews, 108 fair use, authors, 131
feedback
on manuscripts, 42
peer reviews, 106 (see also peer reviews)
figures, 165
presubmission components, 161
Results section, 86, 90–93
file formats (photographs), 161 financial conflicts of interest, 123 findings, presenting, 86
styles, 12
TREND (Transparent Reporting of Evaluations with Nonrandomized Designs), 11

H
health sciences librarians, 144
h-index, 114
honorary authors, 120–122
hybrid open access (OA) models, 138–139

I
images, 93. See also figures impact factors (IFs), 109, 110, 111
implementation procedures, 75–76
implications
Discussion section, 96
for practice, 159
influence, measurement of, 109
Institutional Review Board (IRB), 70, 162
integrative reviews, 64
intensifiers, 31, 32, 33
International Academy of Nursing Editors (INANE), 102, 143, 144, 145
International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE), 8, 9, 13–14, 70, 120, 121, 122
International Journal of Nursing Studies, 111
Introduction, Method, Results, and Discussion (IMRAD) structure, 9–10
Introductions, 47–68
discriminate (principle), 53
evidence-based projects (EBPs), 60–62
first drafts, 56–59
focus of, 53
integrative reviews, 64
quality improvement (QI), 55–56
questions for better, 52f
rewriting, 51–55
search strategies, 64–66
support, 53
synthesis, 62–64
systematic reviews, 64
theoretical frameworks, 60–62
what to leave out of, 59, 60
writing first sentences of, 49, 50, 51

J
jargon, 28–29
Johns Hopkins Nursing Evidence-Based Practice Model, 61
Journal Citation Reports, 110
journal-level metrics, 110–111
journals. See also publishing
article-level metrics, 111–113
article processing charges (APCs), 105, 137–138
author-level metrics, 113–114
blinded peer reviews, 108–109
choosing for submission, 149–151
gold open access (OA) models, 136
green open access (OA) models, 137
guidelines, 7–8, 10–12, 150, 154–155f
hybrid models, 138–139
International Academy of Nursing Editors (INANE), 102, 143, 144, 145
International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE), 8, 9, 13–14, 70, 120, 121, 122
International Journal of Nursing Studies, 111
Introduction, Method, Results, and Discussion (IMRAD) structure, 9–10
Introductions, 47–68
discriminate (principle), 53
evidence-based projects (EBPs), 60–62
first drafts, 56–59
focus of, 53
integrative reviews, 64
quality improvement (QI), 55–56
questions for better, 52f
rewriting, 51–55
search strategies, 64–66
support, 53
synthesis, 62–64
systematic reviews, 64
theoretical frameworks, 60–62
what to leave out of, 59, 60
writing first sentences of, 49, 50, 51

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book.
types of, 104–109
vetting, 17–18
JPEG (Joint Photographic Experts Group) files, 161

K–L

keywords, 159–160, 165
label items, 93
landmarks, 93
language use, 26–28, 73
legalities for authors, 120–134
legends, 92
length
of Introductions, 52
of Literature Review, 52
of manuscripts, 5
levels of OA (open access) journals, 136–137 Lewin’s Model of Change, 62 licenses, Creative Commons, 127 limitations, Discussion section, 95–96
Literature Review, 15, 47–68
evidence-based projects (EBPs), 60–62
first drafts, 56–59
integrative reviews, 64
quality improvement (QI), 55–56
questions for better, 52t
rewriting, 51–55
search strategies, 64–66
synthesis, 62–64
systematic reviews, 64
theoretical frameworks, 60–62
what to leave out of, 59, 60
local problems, 55–56
logical flow of manuscripts, 37–38

M

machine readability, 139
Managing Editor, 102, 103t, 152
manuscripts, 165
Analysis section, 77–78
bodies, 160
choosing journals for submission, 149–151
conclusion, 30–33
Conclusions, 96–97
decisions after submitting, 168–180
Discussion section, 94–97
examples of, 16
feedback, 42
first drafts (see first drafts)
focus of, 48, 57, 58
Introductions, 47–68
length of, 5
Literature Review, 47–68
logical flow of, 37–38
Methods section, 70–76
open access (OA) models, 135–146
organizing, 37–41, 54
paragraphs, 38
presubmission components, 156–163
publication ahead of print, 179
purpose of, 4
querying journals, 151–153
reading aloud, 42
reasons for rejection, 169–170
redundancy, 54
Results section, 84–93
reviewing, 42
revising, 42
search strategies, 64–66
selecting titles, 148–149
subheads, 38
submissions, 147–166
supporting information, 5
transitional devices, 39–41
working with editors, 174–179
meta-analysis, 10

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book.
methods
  abstracts, 158
  papers, 15
  qualitative, 19–22
Methods section, 70–76
  data collection, 73–74
  implementation procedures, 75–76
  procedures, 74
  project planning, 75–76
  samples, 72–73
  setting, 72
  study design, 71
metrics
  Altmetrics, 112–113
  article-level, 111–113
  author-level, 113–114
  Eigenfactor, 111
  h-index, 114
  journal-level, 110–111
  manipulating, 114
  PlumX, 113
  Public Library of Science (PLOS), 112
  publishing, 109–115
misconduct, authors, 128
multiple authors, 12–14

N
National Institutes of Health (NIH)
  research, 133
National Library of Medicine, 133
New England Journal of Medicine, 111 nonrandomized studies, 8
nouns, 35
numbering tables and figures, 92

O
online supplements, Results section, 86 Open Access (Peter Suber), 145
open access (OA) models, 105, 135–146
article processing charges (APCs), 105, 137–138
hybrid models, 138–139
levels of, 136–137
predatory publishing, 139–144
publishing, 146
questionable publications, 144–145
Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association (OASPA), 145
open peer reviews, 108–109
order of authors, 122 organizing manuscripts, 37–41, 54. See also formatting
  first drafts, 64
  local problems, 55–56
  logical flow of, 37–38
  paragraphs, 38
  subheads, 38
  transitional devices, 39–41
outcomes
  summary statements, 94
  support for, 84
  outlines, Methods section, 75–76

P
page proofs, 178
paragraphs, 38
passive voice, avoiding, 33
peer reviews, 104, 105–107
  blinded, 108–109
  open, 108–109
  processes, 107
  responding to recommendations, 171–174
  revising, 106
permissions, 125, 165
authors, 128
  presubmission components, 162
  personal pronouns, 34

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book. photographs, 93, 160–161. See also figures phrases

  concision, 30–33
  constructing, 27
  redundancy, 35–36
  transitional, 40

plagiarism, 129–130, 131

Plan-Do-Study-Act, 61, 76

planning, Methods section, 75–76

PlumX, 113

PNG (Portable Network Graphic) files, 161

practice change, 8

precision (in writing), 34–35

predatory publishing, journals, 115, 139–144

presubmission components, 156–163
  abstracts, 157–159
  artwork, 160–161
  callouts, 162, 163
  clinical trial registry, 162
  coauthors, 156
  cover letters, 156–157
  figures, 161
  forms, 162
  Institutional Review Board (IRB), 162
  keywords, 159–160
  manuscript bodies, 160
  permissions, 162
  photographs, 160–161
  tables, 161
  title pages, 157

PRISMA (Preferred Reporting Items for Systematic Reviews and Meta-Analyses), 8, 10–11

privacy, authors, 125

procedures, Methods section, 74

processes
  peer reviews, 107t
  submissions, 147–166

production costs, 105

pronouns, personal, 34

Proofreaders, 104t

proofreading, 176

ProQuest, 132

publishing. See publishing

publication ahead of print, 179

Public Library of Science (PLOS), 112, 136

publishers, 103t

publishing, 14–16. See also writing

application papers, 16

article-level metrics, 111–113

author-level metrics, 113–114

blinded peer reviews, 108–109

concept analyses, 15–16

descriptions of manuscripts, 16

journal-level metrics, 110–111

journals (see journals)

literature reviews, 15

methods papers, 15

metrics, 109–115

open access (OA) models, 135–146

open peer reviews, 108–109

overview of, 102–117

peer reviews, 105–107

predatory journals, 115

questionable publications, 144–145

redundant publications, 132–133

roles in, 102–104

standards and guidelines, 8–14

styles of journals, 104–109

writing for, 5–8

PubMed Central, 133

punctuation, 40. See also grammar

purpose
  of abstracts, 158
  of manuscripts, 4

statements, 53

Q

qualifiers, 31, 32, 33

qualitative methods, 19–22

qualitative research, 85, 88–90

qualitative studies, 78

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book.
quality improvement (QI), 7, 8, 10, 70, 74
Discussion section, 95
Introductions, 55–56
Literature Review, 55–56
quantitative research, 85, 86–87
querying journals, 18, 151–153, 176–178
questions for better reviews, 52

R
radiograph images, 93
randomized controlled trials (RCTs), 8, 11
redundancy, 54
in first drafts, 64
in phrases, 35–36
redundant publications, 132–133
rejections, 168, 169–170 representative samples, 73
research, 8
National Institutes of Health (NIH), 133
Results section, 85
transparency in, 7
resources, grammar, 40 results. See also Results section credibility of, 90
statements, 53
trust in, 96
Results section, 84–93
figures, 90–93
formatting, 84–85
online supplements, 86
qualitative research, 85, 88–90
quantitative research, 85, 86–87
tables, 90–93
reuse rights, 138
reviewers
peer reviews, 104, 105–107
responding to recommendations, 171–174
types of peer reviews, 108–109
reviews
articles, 115
chart, 73
integrative, 64
manuscripts, 42
systematic, 64
revising, 6–7. See also editing; writing acceptances with revisions, 168
first drafts, 64
manuscripts, 42
peer reviews, 106
rewriting, 6–7. See also writing
Introductions, 51–55
Literature Review, 51–55
qualitative research, 89
rights
author posting, 139
automatic posting, 139
copyrights (see copyrights)
machine readability, 139
reader rights, 138
reuse, 138
rigor, 7, 138
roles in publishing, 102–104
rows, 92. See also tables rules for writing, 5–8

S
salami-slicing, 115
samples, 72–73. See also examples searching for freelance editors, 170 journals to submit to, 149–151
search strategies, 64–66
sections
Analysis, 77–78
Conclusions, 96–97
Discussion, 94–97
Introductions, 47–68
Literature Review, 15, 47–68
Methods, 70–76
Results, 84–93
selecting titles, 148–149
self-citations, 114
self-plagiarism, 130
sending. See submissions senior faculty pressure, 115 sentences, topic, 56, 57, 58 setting, Methods section, 72 software, statistical, 77
specificity, 37, 49
SQUIRE (Standards for Quality Improvement Reporting Excellence), 8, 10, 70 standards, 8–14
starting writing, 17–18
statements
on authorship, 121
change models, 62
purpose, 53
results, 53
summary, 88, 94
support, 63
transitional, 39–40
statistical analysis, 106
statistical software, 77 statistical terms, avoiding, 35 statistics, Results section, 86, 87
stigmatizing language, avoiding, 73
student papers
length of, 5
purpose of, 4
supporting information, 5
studies
citations, 63
description of, 58
qualitative, 78
study design, Methods section, 71
styles, formatting, 12
Suber, Peter, 145
subheads, 38, 88
submissions, 147
avoiding predatory journals, 139–144
checklists, 163–166
choosing journals, 149–151
decisions after submitting, 168–180
to journals, 144
presubmission components, 156–163
querying, 151–153
reasons for rejection, 169–170
responding to recommendations, 171–174
selecting titles, 148–149
working with editors, 174–179
subscriptions, OA models, 137 substantive editing, 175
summary statements, 88, 94
support
Introductions, 53
for outcomes, 84
statements, 63
supporting information, 5
surveys, 74
synthesis, 62–64
systematic reviews, 8, 10, 64

tables, 165
presubmission components, 161
Results section, 85, 86, 90–93
themes, 90
tests, 84. See also Results section text, Results section, 86
themes, 88, 89, 90
theoretical frameworks, 60–62
thesaurus, 35
thick description, 78, 90
TIFF (Tagged Image File Format) files, 161 titles
selecting, 148–149
title pages, 157
topic sentences, 56, 57, 58
traditional models, 105
transitional devices, 39–41
transparency
  in peer reviews, 108
  in research, 7
TREND (Transparent Reporting of Evaluations with Nonrandomized Designs), 8, 11 trust, gaining, 96, 120 types of journals, 104–109

W

words
  concision, 30–33
  transitional, 40
writing
  active voice, 33
  adding something new to, 7
  Analysis section, 77–78
  choosing journals for submission, 149–151
  clarity, 26
  colloquialisms, 29
  concision, 30–33
  Conclusions, 96–97
  decisions after submitting, 168–180
  Discussion section, 94–97
  do good work, 6
  euphemisms, 30
  examples of manuscripts, 16
  first drafts (see first drafts)
  following guidelines, 7–8, 10–12, 150, 154–155
  grammar (see grammar)
  Introductions, 47–68
  jargon, 28–29
  language use, 26–28
  Literature Review, 47–68
  Methods section, 70–76
  open access (OA) models, 135–146
  personal pronouns, 34
  precision, 34–35
  presubmission components, 156–163

prioritizing, 17
  for publication, 5–8
  publication ahead of print, 179
  querying journals, 151–153
  redundancy, 35–36
  Results section, 84–93
  rewriting, 6–7
  selecting titles, 148–149
  specificity, 37
  starting, 17–18
  submissions, 147–166
  working with editors, 174–179

© 2020 by Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. All rights reserved. Visit www.sigmamarketplace.org/sigmabooks to purchase the full book.