Title:
SPECIAL SESSION: DIY Educational Escape Rooms: Behind the Scenes

Keywords:
Curriculum, Escape Room and Simulation

Description/Overview:
This session includes a behind the scenes look at creating, piloting, implementing and evaluating an educational escape room in the nursing curricula. A “how to” discussion of escape room planning, including workload considerations and lessons learned, will assist educators in determining whether or not to adopt this learning strategy.

References:

Organizer
Lynn L. Wiles, PhD, MSN, BSN, RN, CEN
School of Nursing Old Dominion University
Associate Professor
ODU Virginia Beach Higher Education Center
Virginia Beach VA
USA

Author Summary: Dr. Wiles is an Associate Professor in the School of Nursing at Old Dominion University. Her PhD focus was clinical decision making in newly graduated critical care nurses. She has been a practicing emergency/critical care nurse since 1988; a nurse educator since 1994, and the Director of Technology and Simulation at ODU since 2011.

Organizer
Janice E. Hawkins, PhD, RN
School of Nursing Old Dominion University
Senior Lecturer
ODU Virginia Beach Higher Education Center
Virginia Beach VA
USA

Author Summary: Janice Hawkins is a nursing faculty member at Old Dominion
University where she serves as the departmental academic advisor and director of community and global health initiatives.

Organizer

Beth Tremblay, MSN, RN
School of Nursing Old Dominion University
Lecturer
ODU Virginia Beach Higher Education Center
Virginia Beach VA
USA

Author Summary: Ms. Tremblay has given presentations at a graduate symposium. She had a presentation accepted at the Sigma Leadership convention, but due to weather was not able to attend.