Title:
SPECIAL SESSION AND LIVE Q&A: Sigma Leadership Opportunities: Stepping Stones to Leadership

Keywords:
Leadership, Opportunities and Service

Description/Overview:
Have you considered the opportunity to serve Sigma through elected leadership? Do you know the roles and responsibilities for the available positions? Attend this session presented by members of the Leadership Succession Committee to hear more about “stepping stones to leadership” and the process for preparing the 2021 ballot.

References:
- https://www.reflectionsonnursingleadership.org/features/more-features/sigma-needs-leaders-what-are-you-waiting-for
- https://www.sigmanursing.org/why-sigma/about-sigma/sigma-leadership-succession
- https://www.sigmanursing.org/why-sigma/about-sigma/sigma-leadership-succession/lsc-members
- https://www.sigmanursing.org/why-sigma/about-sigma/sigma-leadership-succession/lsc-resources
- https://www.sigmanursing.org/docs/default-source/LSC-Documents/lsc_international-leadership-opportunitiesfbb85a9946f86225bce7ff000034804e.pdf?sfvrsn=424038f2_0

Organizer
Gwen Sherwood, PhD, RN, FAAN
University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
School of Nursing
Professor and Associate Dean for Global Initiatives
Chapel Hill, North Carolina
USA

Author Summary: Dr. Sherwood's scholarship evolved from a model for caring relationships to examine multicultural aspects of patient satisfaction with pain management and the development of the Spanish Language tool, Houston Pain Outcome Instrument. A leader in patient safety, teamwork, and reflective practice, she was co-led the Quality and Safety Education for Nurses (QSEN) project funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. She served two terms as Vice President of STTI and is co-editor of four books.

Organizer
Kuei Ru Chou, PhD, RN, FAAN
Taipei Medical University
College of Nursing
Distinguished Professor, Dean of College of Nursing
Taipei
Taiwan

Author Summary: Leading the professional development and international academic exchanges of nursing staff of the Psychiatric Mental Health Nurses’ Association, Taiwan Nursing Association and the Taiwan Long-term Care Professional Nursing Society. Cultivate nursing talents. 30 years of work.

---

Monina Hernandez, MN (Hons), PGDip HSc, PGCertTertiaryTch, BSN, RN, RM
Massey University
School of Nursing
Lecturer
Auckland
New Zealand

Author Summary: Monina Hernandez is a lecturer and doctoral student at Massey University in New Zealand. She has governance experience in both public and not-for-profit governance roles as a member of the Nursing Council of New Zealand -regulatory authority responsible for the registration of nurses, as President of Filipino Nurses’ Association of NZ, Inc and as former elected director of New Zealand Nurses Organisation - largest professional and industrial organisation representing around 52,000 health staff.