

Title:

Plenary Session 3: Sustaining a Healthy Work Environment During a Pandemic and Beyond

Keywords:

COVID-19, Collaborative Initiatives and Healthy Work Environment

Summary:

Presentation entails the organization's initiatives in sustaining a healthy work environment. Highlights of collaborative initiatives encompassing the six elements of a healthy work environment during the novel COVID-19 pandemic and beyond are featured.

Organizer

Lindsey Jandoli, BSN-RN, CEN-Adult ED, ANM
Saint Peter's University Hospital
Emergency Department
Assistant Nurse Manager
New Brunswick, New Jersey
USA

Author Summary: Lindsey Jandoli is a bachelors-prepared nurse who graduated from Villanova University. She started her nursing career at St. Peters University Hospital in 2013 and later transferred to the emergency department as a staff nurse where she enhanced her skills as a new nurse transitioning to practice. Lindsey is a lifelong proactive learner and quickly attained certification as a board-certified emergency nurse through BCEN and is currently the Assistant Nurse Manager in the emergency department.