Life After the Diagnosis: The Quality of Life of Canadian Male Veterans Medicated for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)

Debra Bastien, RN BScN MIDST©
University of New Brunswick
Presentation at a glance:

- What is Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)?
- Canadian Forces and combat
- Treatment of PTSD
- Research Methodology: Narrative
- Themes & Subthemes
- Indications for Future Research & Practice
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)

- History & Symptoms

Canadian Forces

- Peacekeeping & Combat

Military culture

Pharmacological Treatment of PTSD

- Anti-depressants & Benzodiazepines
Narrative Research Methodology

- Key features of narrative
- Interviews
- Stories of lived experience
- Metaphors

Themes
- Quality of life, Stigma, Fatigue & Sexual dysfunction

Subthemes
- Guilt, Interpersonal relationships, Identity
Indications Future Research & Practice
Debra Bastien RN BScN MIDST©

University of New Brunswick
Fredericton, New Brunswick

debralynnliebnbastien@gmail.com