Learner Objectives

1. Identify leadership strategies to provide a structure and process for implementation of evidence-based practice to achieve exemplary patient outcomes.

2. Describe the benefits of experiential learning for mentor, protégé, and organization to sustain and spread evidence-based practices.
Purpose

• Learn how a freestanding, Magnet designated children’s hospital provides an infrastructure to empower registered nurses to appraise the body of research evidence for planned changes in practice and deliver the highest quality of compassionate care using the best practices, technology and equipment available within our financial resources.
Target Audience

• Conference participants interested in evidence-based practice.
• Clinical nurse leaders interested in learning about the practical experience of building an infrastructure in a clinical setting.
• Academic educators interested in learning about the potential for academic-clinical partnerships for relevant and meaningful practicum experiences.

The heart of mentoring

Getting the most out of life isn't about how much you keep for yourself, but how much you pour into others.

—David Stoddard

A mentor empowers a person to see a possible future, and believe it can be obtained.

—Shawn Hitchcock

If you light a lamp for someone it will also brighten your own path.

—Buddhist proverb

A mentor helps you see the beauty in your dreams.

—Unknown
