

Correctional Health Care: Local, Regional and International Collaborations

Donna M. Zucker, RN, PhD, FAAN
Sigma Theta Tau's 26th International
Nursing Research Congress
San Juan, Puerto Rico
July 26, 2015

Disclosure

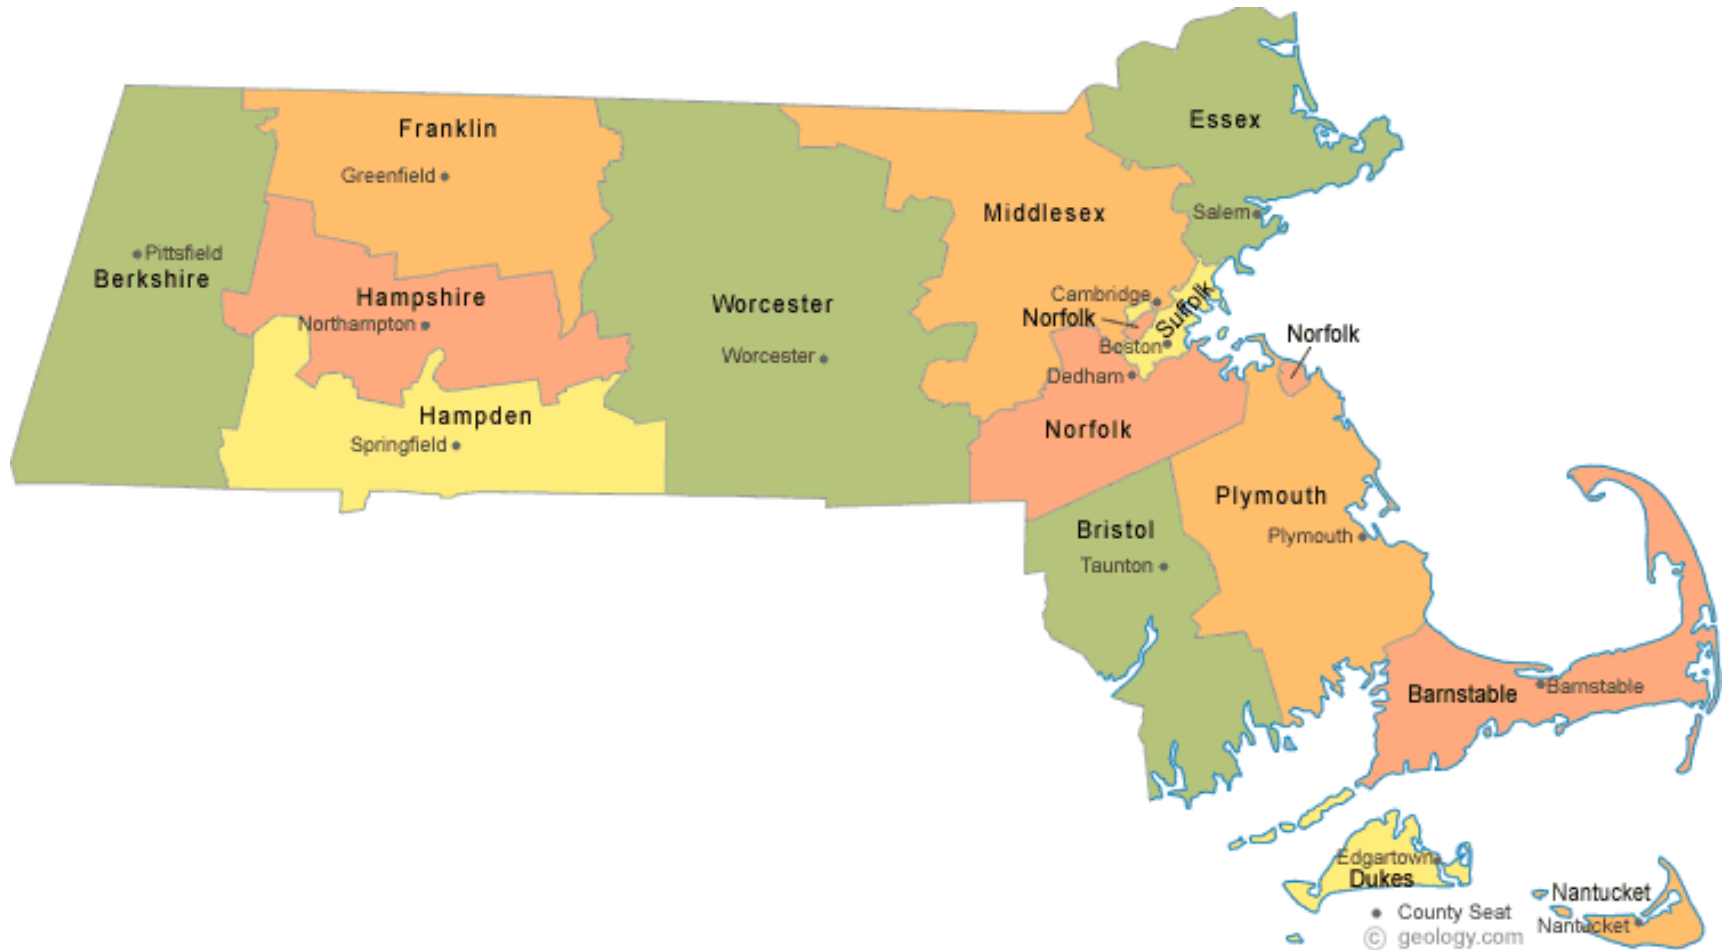

I have nothing to disclose and no conflicts of interest.

Objectives

- To describe the nursing activities of building capacity and networks in Correctional Care and Criminal Justice.
- To describe programs and activities completed in local, regional and international settings.

Massachusetts, USA

Clinical Examples-Local

Research Studies

- Peer Education
 - Relationship centered care-increases knowledge and healthy behaviors
- Mobile Outreach
 - State surveillance and resources required
- Labyrinth Walking
 - Impact of a walking curriculum on blood pressure and quality of life
- Prison Parenting

Collaboration - Regional

Center for Correctional Health Networks

The academic partner of UMass Memorial Health Care

Regional Examples

- Consultations- with three other county jails
 - Peer education, parenting and obesity

- Nurse Education
 - Filmed research segment at Center for Correctional Health Networks at University of Connecticut

- Joining Consortia
 - Affiliated with the 5 Campuses of Umass System to form a Criminal Justice and Health Research Group

Consultation and Collaboration

- Custody and Caring Conferences, Saskatoon, SK,CA (8 countries represented)
 - Paper presenter 2013, 2015
 - Visiting Professor October 2014
 - Student, Faculty, Community, Forensic Centre, Regional Psychiatric Hospital

- Veriditas Facilitator Training
 - Ottawa, Canada 2009 Training and Certification
 - Chartres France, 2015, Recertification
 - International Colleagues- Canada, UK, Italy

Research Examples

- Abstract Review Committee Custody & Caring Conference 2015
- Reviewer for The Journal of Forensic Nursing
- Consultation with Regional Psychiatric Centre in Saskatoon, SK, CA for labyrinth walking program
- Consultation with a Senior Village in Saskatoon on a labyrinth construction proposal

International Collaborations

Next Steps

- Nurture and develop research performance sites and collaborations in Canada and western Europe
- Continue professional collaborations and capacity building
- Develop ongoing sensitivities to various cultures
- Disseminate successes to add to the knowledge base

Questions?

donna@acad.umass.edu