A Global Health Project to Engage Nursing and Elementary School Students: Developing Future Leaders through Service-Learning

Deby Tyndall, PhD(c), RN, East Carolina University
Wendy Sullivan, Principal, Wells Elementary School
Objectives

1. Identify strategies to engage nursing students and community partners in service-learning.
2. Recognize potential outcomes of a global health service-learning project.
CON & Wells Elementary Partnership

- Began 2013
- Global Health Project
- 2nd Grade Class - Leaders
- Collection of donations to facilitate charlas for children in Guatemala
Global Awareness Curriculum

Lecture Series:
• Country of Guatemala
• Children of Guatemala
• Service-Learning / Global Health Project
Donation Collection
Leadership Recognition
Follow-Up Visits
Expansion of Project

LEADERS FUNDING LEADERS 4 GUATEMALA!!

Goal $2,000
$1,200

Wells Student Lead Field Day

May 22

East Carolina University
College of Nursing
Outcomes of Partnership

UNIVERSITY
- Mission to develop leadership through service
- CON global health initiatives
- Mentor new Beta Nu members

WELLS ELEMENTARY
- Model for service-learning initiative in all grade levels
- Global awareness curriculum
- The Leader in Me