The Institute for Global Healthcare Leadership™

Cynthia Vlasich, MBA, BSN, RN
Director, Global Initiatives
Sigma Theta Tau International
Objectives

• Identify the need for globally-aware healthcare leaders.

• Describe the framework and intended outcomes of the STTI Institutes for Global Healthcare Leadership.
Need for globally-aware healthcare leaders:

- Structure/Direction setting:
  - UN/WHO
    - SDGs
    - HRH
    - UHC
    - Nursing and Midwifery
  - GAPFON
    - Regional meetings
    - Outcomes
    - Implementation
- Other global organizations
  - Initiatives/recommendations
Need for globally-aware healthcare leaders:

Trends
- Standards
- Migration
- Shortages
- Global/regional specific challenges

Issues:
- Communicable Diseases
- NCDs
- Mental health
- Safety
- Aging
- AMR
- Disaster preparation and response
Sigma Theta Tau International

Mission: Advancing world health and celebrating nursing excellence in scholarship, leadership, and service.
Initiative Background

• 2007 – 2009 STTI Leadership Development Task Force

• Task Force work:
  o Program purpose and description
  o Criteria
  o Outcomes and objectives
  o Potential ideas for content
Institute for Global Healthcare Leadership

Purpose:

To educate and empower healthcare leaders to think and act with a global mindset to influence the work of international and multinational health endeavors.
Institute for Global Healthcare Leadership

Emerging Global Leader Institute

Experienced Global Leader Institute
   Under development
Emerging Global Leader Institute

This institute is designed to prepare globally-aware healthcare leaders to:

• Successfully participate in global healthcare ventures and networking.
• Become a global thought and practice leader, locally, and regionally.
• Provide local and regional consultation to effectively meet dynamic contemporary global healthcare needs.
• View healthcare issues from a global perspective.
Experienced Global Leader Institute

This institute is designed to prepare experienced global healthcare leaders to:

- Be global thought and practice leaders nationally and globally.
- Successfully, lead, collaborate and participate in global healthcare ventures.
- Assume and effectively meet the global demands of critical healthcare leadership positions within their countries.
- Provide national and global consultation to effectively meet dynamic contemporary global healthcare needs.
Expected Areas of Expertise:

- Global Leadership
- Global Economy
- Structure, Systems, and Support
- Culture
- Politics and Policy
- Your Role: Influence v. Implementation
- Networking and Trends
- Tensions and Shifting Sands
- Value Proposition
- Ethics
- Best practices
Expected Areas of Expertise

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities
LEADERSHIP
Global Economy
Structure, Systems and Support
CULTURE
Politics and Policy
Your Role: Influence v. Implementation
Networking and Trends
Tensions and Shifting Sands
Value Proposition
best practices
Important Date:

• Emerging Global Leader Institute
• 7-10 September 2016
For more information, please contact ighl@stti.org or visit ighl.nursingsociety.org
Questions?