PRO Level Leadership: People, PuRpose, and POssibilities

Ann Bianchi, PhD, RN
Pam O’Neal, PhD, RN
Ellise D. Adams PhD, CNM
Disclosure

The authors, Ann Bianchi, Pam O’Neal, and Ellise Adams disclose they have not received any financial support for this presentation and state they have no conflict of interest.
Learning Objectives

The learner will be able to:

1. Apply PRO Level Leadership caveats (People, Purpose, and Possibility) to real life-work situations.

2. Distinguish between a PRO Level Leader and a non-PRO Level Leader.

3. Evaluate the influence on change a PRO Level Leader could have in their work environment.
PRO Level Leaders

Influence Change By:

Bringing people together

Establishing a purpose

Being open to all possibilities

People

The PRO Leader:

- Knows the values and strengths of the people on the team
- Celebrates diversity
- Values differences that can make teams strong and unique
- Moves toward a common purpose

PRO Level Leaders

Diversity in Gender Ethnicity

Diversity in Interprofessional Non traditional students
Success of the PRO Leader

When team members move together as one toward a common purpose.
PuRpose

The PRO Leader

- Develops a common goal
- Allows the momentum of the people to take flight
- Appreciates the unique rhythm of the team
Think SMART

Specific

Measurable

Attainable

Relevant

Time bound

POssibilities

The PRO Leader

• Leads through innovation and change

• Explores novel solutions to common problems

Making the Impossible Possible
Challenge Your Limits
don’t
Limit Your Challenges

Are you up for the challenge?

References

