

Successful DNP Transition: Nurse Practitioner to Academician

Dr. Lisa B. Robinson, DNP, CCRN, CNE, NP-C
Assistant Professor
University of West Georgia

UNIVERSITY of West Georgia®

Tanner Health System
School of Nursing

Disclosure

Presenters has no actual or potential conflicts of interest in relation to this presentation.

Objectives

- The learner will be able to examine strategies for successful transition from practice into academia.
- The learner will be able to discuss methods to support new faculty in nurse educator role.

Key Words

- DNP
- Nurse Educator
- Academia

Academia

- Mission of Academia
- Goals of the Institution
- Goals of the School of Nursing

Types of Institutions

- Community Colleges
- Liberal Arts Colleges
- Universities

Universities

- Public
- Private

Structure of the Institution

- Provost
- Deans
- Schools
- Divisions
- Departments

Shared Governance

- Faculty Senate
- Committees
- Sub-Committees

Bylaws

- Compensation
- Promotion & Tenure
- Academic Freedom
- Benefits
- Grievance Procedure

Teaching Load

- Course Release for Scholarship
- Teaching Overload Courses
- Office Hours

Professional Activities

- Membership in Professional Organizations
- Presenting at Conferences
- CNE

Teaching

- Curriculum Development
- Accreditation

Teaching

- Advising Students
- Assisting Students Academically
- Evaluation of Teaching

Teaching

- Health Requirements
- Online, hybrid, and face to face

Teaching

- Testing
- Grade Appeal
- Liability

Clinical Teaching

- Facility
- Evaluation of Clinical Performance
- Liability

Service

- School of Nursing
- College/University
- Community

Scholarship

- Presentations
- Publications
- Local, State, National
- Grants

Continuing To Practice

- RN
- NP

It is not easy!

References

Available Upon Request

lisar@westga.edu

ANY QUESTIONS
?

