Title:
SPECIAL SESSION: The Relational Nurse Champion Program™

Keywords:
Interprofessional, Quality of Work Life and Relational Nurse Champion Program

Summary:
This presentation will describe a program for nurses, designed to improve inter-professional relationships in a mid-size academic medical center in central Pennsylvania. A curriculum based on the ERI Model of Relationship Building was implemented on two units for an initial three-month pilot study. A preliminary progress report will be discussed.

Slot:
C 03: Saturday, 18 March 2017: 8:00 AM-8:45 AM

References:

Learning Activity:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>LEARNING OBJECTIVES</th>
<th>EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Describe relationship issues that impact the quality of work life for nurses.</td>
<td>An overview of relational issues arising in the workplace and subsequent impact on quality of work life and patient care.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Identify strategies to improve the quality of inter-professional relationships.</td>
<td>Details of the ERI Model of Relationship Building and experiential application activity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Discuss the feasibility of implementing the Relational Nurse Champion Program at learner's institution.</td>
<td>Invite feedback on the pros and cons of developing a Relational Nurse Champion Program and share other promising initiatives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Share preliminary progress from initial three-month pilot study.</td>
<td>Review of formative evaluation data available to date.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>