

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
Describe what a Nursing Professional Practice model is.	I. Nursing Professional Practice Model a. Definition b. Relevance to Magnet®-designation
Explain the steps of focus group methodology that can be used to evaluate a nursing professional practice model.	II. Focus Group Methodology a. Development of questions b. Recruitment of participants c. Data collection d. Data analysis – identification of themes
Relate focus group study findings to the revision of a nursing professional practice model.	III. Revision of the Nursing Professional Practice Model a. Sharing of study findings b. Convening a work group for application of study findings c. Designing the revised model d. Disseminating the revised Nursing Professional Practice Model