

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
The learner will be able to examine the collaboration between undergraduate nursing students and graduate physical therapy students during an inter professional mobility lab.	The results from the student's survey and debriefing session will be presented and explained.
The learner should be able to compare the learning experience as described by the undergraduate nursing student and graduate physical therapy student following and inter professional mobility lab.	The results from the student's survey and debriefing session with presented and explained.
The learner should be able to identify the benefits and barriers to organizing an inter professional mobility lab for nursing and physical therapy students	The experience of the nursing and physical therapy faculty will be described in planning the collaborative effort for the mobility lab.
The learner should be able to contrast the perceived professional identity of the nursing student and the physical therapy students.	The results from the student's survey and debriefing session will be presented and explained.