

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
1) Define and describe the three types of Influenza and the evolution of the H1N1 mutations.	1- Overview of Influenza virus etiology globally including: A) Sub-types of Influenza virus- A, B & C strains. B) Morbidity and Mortality data by age groups and C) Annual economic impact of both direct and indirect costs on the burden of this disease.
2) Identify the risk that influenza plays in the mortality of vulnerable populations as compared to the general population.	A) Discuss the impact of the disease of influenza has on the general population. B) Identify the most vulnerable populations susceptible to influenza disease and current recommendations for prevention.
3) Discuss the Global risks, benefits, effectiveness and current recommendations for administration of the various influenza vaccines available.	Current concerns regarding risk, efficacy and benefits of vaccine including latest meta-analysis results regarding effectiveness.