

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
The learner will be able to describe the influence of faith-based program on the healing of body, mind, spirit and restoration of hope for women recovered from Substance Use Disorders.	Background of the Study Description of the case (Single faith-based program) Purpose of the study Research question : How does a faith-based recovery program shape or guide the healing of body, mind, and spirit and restoration of hope for female drug addicts?
The learner will be able to explain the care providers' perception of the faith-based recovery process.	Results of the study Themes Implications to Nursing practice & Education & Leadership
The learner will be able to describe the real-world experience of the recovered female drug addicts from a faith-based recovery program.	Results of the study Themes Implications to Nursing practice & Education & Leadership