

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
the learners will be able to know the physical function status and quality of life recovery among osteoarthritis patient after total knee replacement surgery.	Patients with knee of osteoarthritis (OA) after surgery had experienced physical function decrease and impact their quality of life.
the learners will be able to know the effectiveness of lower extremity muscle strength training exercise on the physical function and quality of life among osteoarthritis patient after total knee replacement surgery.	After exercise training, the exercise group patients' physical function and quality of life was early recovery and better than no exercise group physical function and quality of life after total knee replacement.