

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
investigated the correlation between psychiatric disorders and SCI.	Psychiatric disorders often occur concomitantly with spinal cord injury. However, the relationship between psychiatric disorders and spinal cord injury (SCI) remains unclear.
The prevalence of schizophrenia	specified tended to increase after SCI
The prevalence of depression disorders	specified tended to increase after SCI
The prevalence of other psychotic disorders	specified tended to increase after SCI