

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE
The learner will be able to critically appraise the interdisciplinary evidence based practice model in place at El Sol, MyClinic for applicability to alternate local or global settings	Expanded Content Outline 1) Introduction and Background Background and history of El Sol Life Course Theory
The learner will be able to examine and apply the analysis and findings related to Life Course Theory for implementation of interdisciplinary healthcare solutions amongst vulnerable populations.	2) Contributory Factors History of migratory patterns Guatemalans Community Response Interdisciplinary Response
The learner will integrate upstream solutions identified in the El Sol model.	3) Community Approach Social Determinants of Health Analysis of needs in Jupiter undocumented population Addressing Early Upstream Social Determinants of Health Safety Health and social crisis
The learner will design and integrate into practice best practices from the LCT model.	4) Integration of healthcare services- Longitudinal Vertical Horizontal Analysis of LCT Strengths Opportunities
The learner will be able to apply concepts of the El Sol model for implementation in practice settings world wide.	7) Implications for nursing Nursing Knowledge and Practice Summary and Conclusions Strengths and Limitations Summary