Recipe for a Nurse:  Start with heaps of compassion, sprinkle in lots of love, stir in a handful of honor, and then whisk in a ton of empathy. Finally, fold in unending courage and a hefty dose of lifelong learning.

Despite all the barking around us...

Nurses do much more than listen to a beating heart or breathing lungs through a stethoscope. Nurses listen to our hurts, fears, and anxieties...Nurses Hear it All!

From the healthcare facility...

Nurses are taking action to be leaders in healthcare, advance health globally, and be change agents, in all seven global regions of Sigma Theta Tau International.
